Ephemera of Harry Percy Lambe (1915–2009)

Harry Percy Lambe (1915–2009) came up to University College in 1934 to read History, but went down in 1936 to pursue a career in business. After working in Java before the war, he served in the Royal Navy, and then joined British European Airways. An obituary for him is given in the 2010 "University College Record".

These papers were given to the archives by his daughter in November 2009 as Accession No. 862.

Catalogued in November 2009.
