UC:S19 Papers of Arthur Spencer Loat Farquharson (Fellow 1899-1942)

Arthur Spencer Loat Farquharson (1871–1942) matriculated at University College in 1890. He read Classics and obtained a First both in Mods in 1892 and in Finals in 1894. He then became a Fellow of University College from 1899 until his death in 1942, serving as Dean for many years, and teaching Logic. Nicknamed 'the Farq' or 'Farquhie', he was one of the best-remembered Fellows of his day, enjoying a reputation among the undergraduates for a slight eccentricity, and among the Fellows for his High Table repartee. However, Farquharson was rather more than a mere wag: he helped revise the Greek Lexicon of Liddell and Scott, and he prepared an edition and translation of the Meditations of Marcus Aurelius, which was published just after his death. Furthermore, it is said that, in 1923, he was a possible candidate for the Mastership. Farquharson joined the Territorial Army, and rose to the rank of Colonel, a title which he regularly used in civilian life.

Only a few papers of Farquharson are preserved in the College's archives. UC:S19/C1/1–3 and UC:S19/P1/1 were transferred to the archives in February 1999 as Accession No. 120; UC:S19/N1 and UC:S19/MS1 had originally been deposited in the Library of University College at an unknown date, and were then transferred to the College Archives in February 1996, and UC:S19/P2/1–2 were found in the archives during the stocktaking of 1993.

Recatalogued in April 2004.

UC:S19/C1 - LETTERS TO FARQUHARSON

These letters were originally found in a copy of W. Carr's University College once owned by Farquharson.

- | | | |
|--------------------|---|--------------------|
| UC:S19/C1/1 | Letter to Farquharson from F. W. Hall (address illegible, but Hall was a Fellow of St. John's College, and an undergraduate of Trinity) concerning a dispute concerning College barges, in particular relating to responsibility for the land around a mooring, and whether the amount of money which each College should pay for dredging the river should be in direct proportion to the size of its barge. | 12 May 1921 |
| UC:S19/C1/2 | Letter to Farquharson from G. H. Daughlish (address 52 Westbourne Park Road W2; matr. 1877), on the family of E. C. Clayton (matr. 1856), expressing concern on the College's performance in Eights Week, and reporting the deaths of W. P. James (matr. 1874) and P. A. Scratchley (matr. 1867) | 5 Jun 1935 |
| UC:S19/C1/3 | Letter to Farquharson from John Wild (address University College) concerning the College boat of 1826 and John Hall Parlby (matr. 1823; d. 1898), one of its rowers. | 26 May 1936 |

UC:S19 Papers of Arthur Spencer Loat Farquharson (Fellow 1899-1942)UC:S19/P1 - PHOTOGRAPH OF THE COLLEGE SEAL*UC:S19/P1/1*n.d.

Photograph of the College seal, with a note on the back that it was taken by the then President of Trinity.

UC:S19/P2 - PHOTOGRAPHS OF FARQUHARSON

These photographs were found in an envelope addressed to the Master of University College, and have been identified as showing Farquharson by the then Master, Sir William Beveridge. It is not clear whether they were sent to Beveridge in this envelope on Farquharson's death in 1942, or whether the envelope was merely a convenient receptacle for their storage. In the absence of any other evidence, these photographs are listed here.

UC:S19/P2/11913/14

Photograph of Farquharson wearing his proctorial gown.

UC:S19/P2/2n.d.

Photograph of Farquharson taken when he wore a moustache. It is probably earlier in date than the image in P2/1, but otherwise cannot be dated.
