The Chaplain is the Revd Dr Andrew Gregory. His study is staircase 6 room 6, in Front Quad. His telephone number is 2-76663.

The Chaplain is always glad to see members of the College and its staff. He is also Welfare Fellow, and operates an open-door policy; any student or member of staff who wishes to do so is welcome to call in socially, or to talk to him in confidence about any matter of concern. The College is a very diverse community, and most of his work takes place in a context of pastoral support in which no assumptions are made as to whether individuals hold to any religious beliefs or to none.

For more information about welfare provision in College, go to: https://www.univ.ox.ac.uk/live-at-univ/welfare-support/

The Chaplain will also be glad to assist anyone who may wish to make contact with a chaplain or representative of another denomination or faith.

His e-mail address is andrew.gregory@univ.ox.ac.uk

The Director of Music is Giles Underwood. His email address is giles.underwood@univ.ox.ac.uk.

The Organ Scholars are Alice Habisreutinger and Stella Kremer.

The Christian Union representatives are Toby Lowther and Paul Seaman.

The Roman Catholic Chaplaincy representative is Pietro Nickl.

Other regular services

Daily Prayer: Monday to Friday, 8.40-8.55am
Daily Prayer provides a simple framework in which to read Scripture, to pray for others and for ourselves, and to be still and silent before God.

All our services are open to all college members and staff, to their guests and friends, and to the general public. Our services are according to those of the Church of England, but all are welcome to attend, regardless of tradition, denomination or faith.

Other services and events this term

Thursday 10 May (3rd week) is Ascension Day.
The choir will sing from on high at 8.10am and parishioners from the University Church of St Mary the Virgin will ‘beat the bounds’ in Front Quad at about 10am. There will also be a joint service for Ascension Day with other colleges in the University Church at 8pm.

On Monday 21 May (4th week) a priest from the Roman Catholic Chaplaincy will celebrate Mass in the College Chapel at 6.00pm.

Anyone wishing to join a midweek discussion group may contact the Chaplain for more details.
