Senior Major Gifts Officer

About the College

University College ('Univ') founded in 1249, is the oldest educational foundation in Oxford. The College has approximately 360 undergraduate students, 200 graduate students and 50 Fellows.

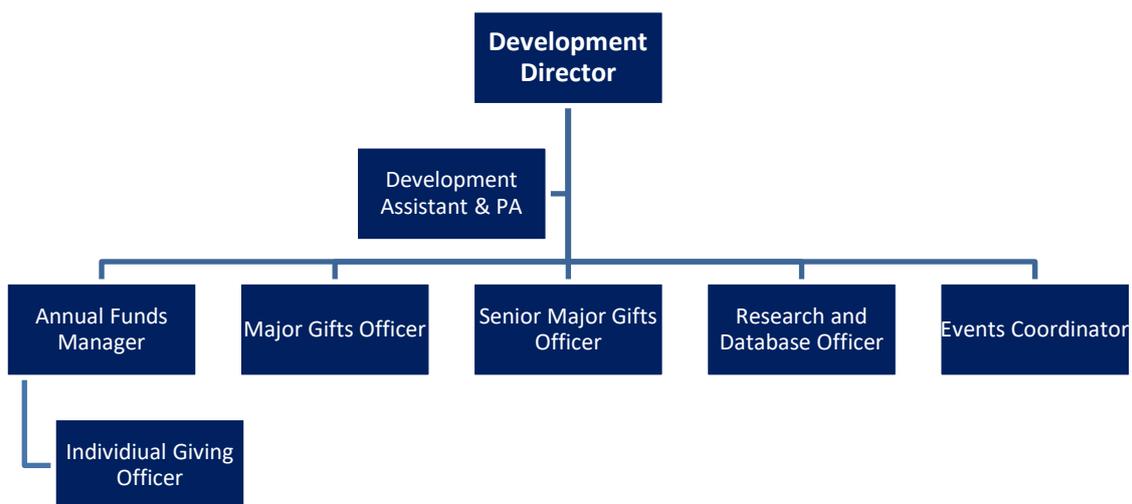

Similar to other Oxford colleges, Univ is an independent, self-governing establishment. Univ is headed by the Master and lead by the Governing Body of Fellows, which has overall responsibility for all aspects of running the College.

The College has an endowment of over 207 million the seventh largest of the undergraduate colleges, which it is seeking to grow significantly through a major ten-year fund-raising campaign. A second endowment of about 11 million is managed by the Univ Old Members' Trust, an active charitable body whose purpose is to support the College and whose trustees are Old Members or Fellows of Univ. For further information about the College go to www.univ.ox.ac.uk.

The Development Office

The Development Team is responsible for alumni relations and fundraising. They enable students to keep in touch with other members of the Univ community and with the College after they graduate. They also organize events for Old Members (alumni) including subject reunions, Gaudies (year group reunions) and special conferences and seminars. The post holder will work as part of a team of 8 staff.

Development Office Organisation Chart

While each member has specific responsibilities, it is a friendly 'all hands on' office where considerable teamwork is welcomed and expected. Further information about the activities of the Development Office can be found at <http://univalumni.org/>
