UC:P252 Photograph album of Arnold Kirke Smith (matr. 1869)

Arnold Kirke Smith, the ninth son of William Smith of Ecclesfield, Yorks., Esq., matriculated from University College in October 1869 as a Commoner aged 19. He had previously attended Cheltenham College. According to his Old Members' card from the 1920s, he captained the University's Association Football Team in 1871 and 1872, and played football for England against Scotland in 1872. He took his BA in 1873 and his MA 1878, and later took holy orders. In 1925 he was recorded as living at Boxworth Rectory, Cambridge. His death was recorded in the "University College Record" of 1926/7.

This album was given to the College by an unknown donor in July 2007 as Accession No. 734.

Catalogued in September 2008.

UC:P252/P1 - PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM

UC:P252/P1/1 1862–1873

Photograph Album of Arnold Kirke Smith, containing the following pictures. The original captions are given in inverted commas. Various photographs found loose in this album are listed in UC:P252/P2 below.

The captions to the album appear to have been written in several hands. Whether these are all Kirke Smith's, dating from different periods in his life, or written in by several people (e.g. his family?) is unknown.

Only the names of undergraduates of University College and other Oxford Colleges have been indexed. A list of them is given at the end of this catalogue.

Fol. 1v. "Group University College Oxford 1872". [no names given]

Fol. 2. "Oxford University Football Eleven 1872–3". No names are given, but a few of the sitters have been identified as follows:

However, other copies of this photograph circulated on line (e.g. on Wikipedia) claim that it actually depicts the Oxford University Football Eleven of 1874 which won the FA Cup (in which Kirke Smith did not take part). These sources identify the sitters thus:

Both identifications are therefore provided. If the photograph does depict the 1874 team, this suggests that parts of the album at least received captions some time later, when Kirke Smith's memory (or the memory of the person writing in the album) was at fault.
