About the College
Founded in 1249, University College (‘Univ’) is the oldest educational foundation in Oxford. It combines an ancient heritage with a thoroughly modern approach to fostering excellence in teaching and research.

Univ is an independent, self-governing educational charity overseen by the Governing Body, which has accountability as trustees for all aspects of the running of the College. The Governing Body comprises of approximately 50 Fellows and is chaired by The Master as well as underpinned by a structure of committees. In addition, there are approximately 85 academic staff comprising teachers and researchers and 120 non-academic staff working in various support roles.

Univ’s overriding emphasis is on academic endeavour at the highest standard; strictly merit-based recruitment of students; tutorial teaching of undergraduates; a closely integrated graduate community; and a strong commitment to research in the humanities and sciences. Every year about 110 undergraduates and 85 graduates are admitted to Univ. Around 600 junior members – 370 undergraduates and 230 graduates - are in residence at any one time.
