

Services and Guest Preachers on Sundays

Hilary Term 2021

Services

This term most of our students and staff are studying and working from home. Our weekly Sunday evening services are a shortened version of Choral Evensong, recorded by a small number of people in the college chapel.

Guest Preachers

We welcome two guest preachers this term:

31 January: Choral Evensong for Candlemas
The Revd Philippa White

Philippa is Precentor at Christ Church Cathedral, which means that she is responsible for planning worship of various kinds and making sure that everything in the cathedral runs smoothly. She has been at Christ Church since 2018, before which she was a curate in Lincoln. She and her family have two cats (Ridley and Latimer, named after the Oxford martyrs).

7 February: Choral Evensong
The Revd Anthony Buckley

Anthony studied history at Keble. He has taught in state and independent schools and has been a vicar in Folkestone and Oxford. He became Vicar of St. Michael at the Noth Gate in 2019, and is City Rector of Oxford and Area Dean. He has written several books and speaks in many contexts; his favourite accolade was the somewhat pointed "Sir, we did like your irrelevant anecdotes ..."
