UC:P400 PHOTOGRAPH ALBUM OF ALAN HERBERT FYFFE (MATR. 1903)

Alan Herbert Fyffe came up to University College in 1903, having been educated at Winchester. His father Charles had been a Fellow here from 1875–92. Fyffe's academic career was not very successful (he left with a Pass Degree), but he made a lively and full contribution to College and University life. He rowed for the College, played cricket at University level, and received a Blue in Athletics, but he also joined the College's literary societies, and even took part in an OUDS production. During the First World War, Fyffe served as a Lieutenant in the Royal Garrison Artillery. He died in 1939.

This album was presented to the College by his granddaughter Angela Treves (née Fyffe) in February 2021 as Accession No. 1492. As with other albums of this kind, this album contains photographs taken by professional photographers which Fyffe had selected for inclusion in it. It stands out among similar student albums of this period in the College's archives because of the great variety of Fyffe's outside interests which are all represented here.

Fyffe also provided the names of many of the sitters in his album. There are just over 200 names given, one-third of whom are members of University College. Because of the great number of names (and Fyffe's occasional inaccuracies in transcribing them, especially of people not attached to University College), an index, giving sitters' full names, and College or institutional affiliations, where known, is given at the end of this catalogue.

Catalogued in March 2021.

1903–1921

Photograph album of Alan Herbert Fyffe, kept partly at Winchester College and mostly at University College, with some later photos. Fols. 1–29 and 33–35 have captions added in pencil to identify the group or event, and to name the sitters. This is the work of Fyffe himself. Fols. 30–32 have names added in ink. These also appear to be the work of Fyffe, but were probably added later.

UC:P400/P2/11904

Small photograph (165 by 105 mm) of composite images of members of the Oxford University Athletics Club of 1904. The images are too small to read the names under each photo, but Fyffe is recognisable among them.

UC:P400/P2/2n.d. (c. 1920–??)

Photograph of participants at an unidentified cricket match. No names given. Several of the cricketers, including Fyffe himself are wearing Free Foresters blazers, so this is probably a Free Foresters match. Fyffe's appearance, and the presence of R. C. Robertson-Glasgow in the middle of the back row suggests that this photograph was taken, like those on fols. 34 and 35 of JC:P400/P1/1 above, in the early 1920s.

UC:P400/P2/3undated

Photograph of a painting or drawing of a church interior with farm animals living in it. No identification given.
