

Further Particulars

Head Porter

About the College

Founded in 1249, University College (Univ) is one of the oldest of the thirty-eight colleges of Oxford University. The College functions as an independent institution and as a social and residential centre for its members. It has approximately 400 undergraduate and 200 graduate students studying most of the core subjects on offer at Oxford.

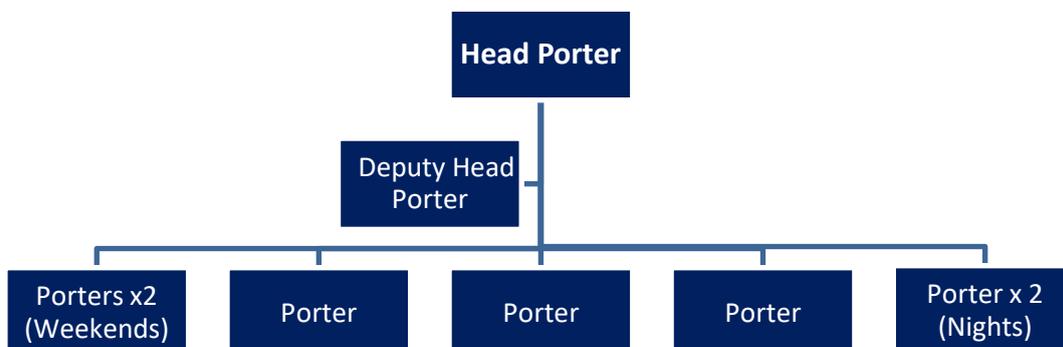

Similar to other Oxford colleges, Univ is a self-governing institution. The ultimate authority for all decisions rests with the Governing Body, which comprises the Master (the Head of the College) and Fellows. The Governing Body is serviced by a structure of committees, chiefly the Academic Committee, concerned with academic policy and administration, and the Finance Committee and the General Purposes Committee, concerned with other aspects of the management of the College.

The College is located on an attractive historic site in the centre of Oxford and the Lodge is situated at the main entrances for students, staff and visitors to the College. Information about the College is available on our website at <http://www.univ.ox.ac.uk/>.

The Team

The Lodge is the welfare, security and information hub of the College, monitoring alarms, safeguarding keys, receiving and sending mail, directing visitors and providing general information. The porters are a crucial part of College life – combining welfare skills where needed with practical knowhow in many situations to help students through their time at Univ.

The successful candidate will manage a team of eight full-time/part-time staff and casuals:

The Lodge is staffed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for most of the year. While each member has specific responsibilities, it is a friendly ‘all hands on’ office where teamwork is essential and expected.

The Role

The Lodge is the ‘go-to people’ for solving immediate problems in College. Therefore, the Head Porter’s role is key in leading a team that is a core part of Univ’s support network for students, Fellows, alumni, staff and visitors. The post-holder will report to the Domestic Bursar and work closely with the College Officers, Fellows and staff to maintain and promote excellent customer service (see the Job Description for further information).

Pay and Benefits

The post is on the University Grade 5 scale (£29,614 – £34,304 per annum). This is a permanent, full-time position (based on a standard 36.5 hour week) with accommodation provided if required (subject to a residential agreement). In line with the responsibilities and benefits of the post, flexibility in working hours will be required. The role requires out of hours work on occasion to cover events, meetings and emergencies, and will require ‘on call’ cover.
