

Preachers on Sunday evenings (5.45 - 6.45pm)

Hilary Term 2026

18 January: Readings and Music for Epiphany The Venerable David Tyler

David Tyler has been Archdeacon of Dorchester, in the Diocese of Oxford, for nearly three years, having previously served as a parish priest in the diocese. As Archdeacon his role is to support and encourage clergy and churches in their mission and ministry. Prior to ordination he worked in London for the Professional services firm KPMG. David is currently studying for a MA and has two children at university

25 January: Choral Evensong – The conversion of St Paul The Chaplain

1 February: Choral Evensong - Candlemas The Revd Dr Sam Durley

Sam Durley is an Assistant Curate in Training in the Benefice of Marston and Elsfield on the outskirts of Oxford. He is also studying for a doctorate in Systematic Theology at the Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam. Before being ordained Sam worked as a post-doctoral researcher in the field of molecular biology, most recently in the Department of Radiation Oncology at the University of Oxford.

8 February: Choral Evensong The Chaplain

15 February: Choral Evensong The Revd Miriam Moul

Miriam Moul is the Superintendent Minister of the Oxford Methodist Circuit, Minister of Wesley Memorial Methodist Church in central Oxford, and Minister of a Punjabi language congregation now based in Kidlington. She also serves as Methodist Chaplain to the University. Before taking on her current role, Miriam served in circuit ministry in the Canterbury and East Kent Circuit (Dover) and as Methodist Chaplain at Oxford Brookes University. She completed an MA in 2019 and hopes to begin further academic study around Methodist hymnody in the near future.

22 February: Choral Evensong
The Revd Martha Grace Weatherill

Martha Grace Weatherill serves as Vicar of Cowley St John in East Oxford, where she ministers across a vibrant and diverse community. She previously worked in Chichester Diocese as Priest-in-Charge of Lavant Churches and Rural Dean of Chichester. Martha has a particular passion for forming disciples, nurturing lay and ordained leaders, and creating spaces where faith, justice, and community life meet.

1 March: Choral Evensong
The Revd Nicky Skipworth

Nicky Skipworth became Lead Chaplain for Thames Valley Police in January 2025, after 23 years in various expressions of parish ministry, prior to which she worked for 14 years in the hospitality industry. She now manages a growing multifaith team of volunteer chaplains serving police officers and staff. Nicky is also a Godly Play Storyteller and an active member of Unite the Union Faith Workers' Branch. She has just had her first 'normal' family Christmas since 1997!

8 March: Readings and Music for Passiontide
The Chaplain